

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

NEW ROMNEY.

COMMITTEE appointed to inspect Charters, Books, Writings and Papers deposited in the Chest in the Court Hall at New Romney by order of the Brotherhood held on the 26th day of July, 1726, and that Committee compare same with the schedule taken at the last Brotherhood in 1828, and that it also inspect and audit the Accounts of Solicitors and the other Accounts and report to-morrow.

On the following day the Committee reported they found as follows :

- No. 1. Charters of Charles 1st and 2nd.
- No. 2. Form of proclaiming the Free Fair at Yarmouth, used by the Bailiffs of the Ports.
- No. 3. The Lord Warden's Progress into Kent, and of being sworn 1st June 1694.
- No. 4. Sundry letters and papers respecting Yarmouth.
- No. 5. Commissions for Brotherhoods and Guestlings, a great number of both former and late centuries including those of 1812 deposited in the Chest by the Town Clerk of Hythe.
- No. 6. The Coronation Papers, numbered thus in the Schedule of Charters made in 1812 of George 2nd and Queen Caroline, and also of James 2nd and Charles 2nd and likewise of the proceedings at the Coronation of George 3rd and Queen Charlotte (these papers were reported as not being found in the Chest at the last Brotherhood Court in 1828).
- No. 7. Being No. 2 of the old Schedule of 1726. Books of Entries from 11th Henry 6th to the 9th Elizabeth, with full proceedings of all the Brotherhoods and Guestlings during that period.

No. 8. "The Register Book of the Cincqz Portes of England" denominated the Black Book commencing 1572.

No. 9. This is supposed to be the same packet as No. 6, some additional Coronation Papers have been found in the Yarmouth Box and put in the proper place.

No. 10. Special Agreements between the Lord Warden (Lord Cobham) and all the Ports, &c., September 1573.

No. 11. Box of Books and papers relating to Yarmouth from 1585 including a Return on parchment dated 1658 appointing Robert Wivill, the Kent Bailiff, to Yarmouth. Also the Flag Arms and Spearhead of Flag Staff.

No. 12. Ports Fines and various papers.

No. 13. Various Petitions to Brotherhoods and Guestlings, including various Reports of Brotherhood and other papers.

No. 14. The copies of the proceedings at the last Court of Brotherhood and Guestling in 1828.

The Ivory Seal of the Bailiffes to Yarmouth and the Book called the Customal Book of 1586 mentioned in the minutes of the last Meeting as not being found, are still missing.

Also that at the last Meeting in 1828 there was a balance in hand of £160 os. 4d. on the death of John Shipdem, and a balance of £143 1s. 10d. was paid over by the Executors to Mr. Stringer. A further account from him is shown, and a balance of £30 7s. 6d. is in hand on the 21st May, 1840. A further account is shown, and a balance to this time is in hand of £7 12s. 9d.

1857 The Report of the Committee is received and recorded on the Minutes.

Mr. Stringer, Solicitor, states that in 1839 he obtained the opinion of the Attorney General as to the effect of the Municipal Corporations Act, and he was of opinion that all the places specified in the Schedule to the Act were forbidden to make any application of the Borough Fund towards the expenses of the Courts of Brotherhood and Guestling.

Also that the Courts and Office of Speaker was not repealed, and other privileges of the Barons or Inhabitants to Canopy Service and Rights of Fishing and Exemption from Harbour Light and other Dues and Duties, &c., are not affected.

Ordered that the queries and the opinions of the Attorney General be entered on the minutes.

The Solicitor also stated that in July, 1839, he laid a similar case before Sir William Follett, who was of opinion that if any property belonging to the Corporations is more than sufficient to defray the charges mentioned in the Act that they were not prohibited from paying out of the surplus the customary expenses.

Ordered that this opinion be recorded.

The legality of several of the Commissions returning Deputations not being on stamps was discussed, and it was agreed they be received.

Clerk read Report of the proceedings in 1828 with regard to fines, and Mr. Stringer, Solicitor, stated they had taken Counsel's opinion thereon, which was read.

Ordered that usual fee be paid to Chaplain for his attendance, and vote of thanks for his Sermon, which was to be printed.

The Speaker asks the opinion of the House as to when the Office of Speaker commenced. Order that it commence yearly on the 21st May as heretofore.

Order that the Solicitor acquaint the Speaker yearly of his office.

Order that the Record Commissioners be allowed to inspect the Records Books and papers on the consent of the Speaker being obtained, and that Mr. Attree, the Recorder of Hastings, be requested to cause the Resolution to be laid before the Commissioners.

Order that the Speaker be allowed the use of any Records, &c., for inspection and to make Extracts.

Petition presented from Lydd that they are unable to hold Quarter Sessions without the assistance of a Barrister as Assessor. They were reduced to two Freemen, and could not elect a Bailiff.

Order that it be entered on the Minutes.

Petition from Pevensey to enquire into the management of that Corporation to be entered on the Minutes.

Letter read from Mark Antony Lower of Lewes regretting unable to be present.

Order that £23 3s. 6d. expenses of the present Court be paid and apportioned among the Ports Towns and Members

Vote of thanks to the Mayor, &c., of New Romney for assistance in holding the Court and to the Rev<sup>d</sup> Richard Smith and Churchwardens of Romney and the Speaker for his conduct and trouble.
